The career of Cresceus during the present year will always be regarded as a most remarkable one. He has been going fast miles every week since July, and he is still pegging away and appears to thrive and grow better all the time. In a recent letter from San Francisco Mr. Ketcham stated that Cresceus never looked better and never had more speed than he has right now.

To the Ladies.

WALNUT FLAT, Dec. 16.—What hinders the ladies of the Confederate Association at Stanford from having some kind of an entertainment at Stanford on the next anniversary birthday of Gen. Lee. I would suggest the day time as that would give the "Old Boys" from adjacent counties a chance to be on hand with their friends. I would further suggest that Judge Alcorn deliver us a short address as he is the only regimental officer of Col. Grigsby's regiment now living. Also Judge Sautley as he is the only company officer of that regiment living in Lincoln. I offer those ladies these suggestions for their consideration.

J. H. MILLER.

The board of trustees of the Kentucky Houses of Reform had the honor of the presence of Gov. Beckham, Senator J. Embury Allen, Representative Van Meter and other distinguished gentlemen at its meeting Wednesday, all of whom expressed themselves greatly pleased with the management of the institution and the good work it is doing, especially the governor, who promised his best efforts to secure the $150,000 appropriation that the trustees desire to enlarge the capacity of the establishment, which is now crowded with constant demands for the admission of more unfortunate children. There are 289 there, when the normal capacity is 250.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

The plucky man who slew "Billy the Kid" has been given a fat job by President Roosevelt. A notch in a Western man's gunstock has more weight than a Senator's indorsement with President Teddy.—Louisville Times.
